

ALLEN CONVERSATION WITH FRANCIS JOSEPH SHEERAN

On October 9, 1978, Charles Allen (CA) had a conversation with Frank Sheeran (FS) which the FBI recorded with the consent of Allen. Their conversation as it relates to the Hoffa disappearance is as follows:

FS: (Unintelligible). You got your glasses?

CA: Eh. No.

FS: Can you read alright?

CA: No. What's it say?

FS: It's about the Hof, Hoffa thing...

CA: Oh yea?

FS: They claim that (unintelligible) I picked the guys up at the airport and then after they killed Hoffa, they turned the body over to me.

CA: Who a...:(unintelligible)

FS: I ain't kiddin' ya.

CA: I ain't talking' (unintelligible)

FS: I was on the (unintelligible) because of (unintelligible).

CA: That was in the paper? Oh yea, that's from two books.

FS: (Unintelligible) It's a... it's a book review.
The two books are the "Teamsters" and "The Hoffa Wars" and they claim that the, the hit was ordered by Russell Bufalino (Phonetic)...

CA: Oh.

FS: ...and I was closely associated to Russell in the Mafia.

CA: Uh. huh.

FS: And a very close associate with, with uh Tony Pro.

Right?

CA: Yea.

FS: And... When they instructed me I picked up the three guys from the airport, drove over there and then it turned out that he hit the guy, and he turned the body over to me.

CA: (laughs)

FS: What a fuckin' bitch? Now you know I'm not the fuckin' bitch. I wasn't even in Detroit that fuckin' day. I was in Wilkes-Barre that day, and out in Detroit the 31st. Really.
